

Looking for a TOP SPEAKER who presents serious content in an engaging manner?

Whom?

Makheni Zonneveld, the virtual and Face2Face speaker, is originally from South Africa. She is the founder of both Real Solutions Training in South Africa (1999) and later Real Solutions Training Nederland.

What?

Makheni is one of the top six speakers in South Africa. She got this accolade not only because of her unique engaging presentation style but also because she is a content speaker.

Her content is based on a thorough understanding of behavioural sciences as well as real-life experience in both the private and public sectors, in different sectors and at different levels including team leadership and executive leadership.

She speaks on behavioural competencies including leadership, transformation, team engagement, brain preferences and inclusion. More on makheni.com.
